

2012 WINTER/SPRING SESSION
Mondays, February 20th to April 9th

Stage Combat (High School) – With an eye always on safety, Adam Danoff (the Mad Hatter from 2010’s Alice in Wonderland) rejoins the MT teaching staff to show students the tricks of effective stage combat that no actor wants the audience to know! Students will spend time learning the basics of hand-to-hand, knife and sword fighting for the stage. Adam is certified with the Society of American Fight Directors and is a member of the International Fight Directors Guild. 6:30 to 8:30 pm in the Rehearsal Hall.

Middle Schoolers LIVE! (Middle School) – Students will work with teaching artist Ben Smallen (director of MTT’s upcoming production of Aladdin, Jr.) to create unique comic characters through puppetry, mask creation, and improvisation games to craft an original variety show. The final show will be performed for an audience of local retirement home residents. 4:00 to 6:00 pm in the Rehearsal Hall.

Movement and Music (Grades 3 to 5) – Barrymore Award-winning actor Kim Carson returns to guide our youngest actors through the basics of America’s most popular theatrical form – the musical! Kim will work with the students to create original songs and soundscapes, and she will challenge them to develop unique choreography built from simple movement. All levels of experience are welcome! 4:30 to 6:30 pm on the Project Stage.

Tuition is $225/student * SCHOLARSHIPS & FINANCIAL AID ARE AVAILABLE
