

Winter 2019 Session

January 7th to February 25th, Mondays 6pm-8pm Each class meets at 124 N Main St, Souderton

Musical Theater: The Modern Age (8 weeks, Grades 3-5, $255) — Musical Theater has been having an incredible Renaissance the last 15 years, and this class will focus on some of those recent mega-hits. Students will examine current trends in Broadway music and learn about how the modern performer's sound has evolved in the new millennium.

Intro to Theater Tech (4 weeks, January, Grades 6-12, $160) – No show could GO without the support of the Tech Team. In this class students will learn about some of the backstage jobs that exist in the theater world. Lighting, Sound, Set Design and Construction, Costuming, and more. The on-stage business is only one part of the puzzle!

Audition Prep (4 weeks, February, Grades 6-12, $160) – Get ready for Spring auditions by practicing your audition techniques and learning what casting directors want and don't want to see on stage. How to format your resumé, what to include, what makes a good headshot, and many other tips will give you the leg up on the competition at your next audition!
